Beyond the allure and glamour of mainstream Hollywood, Jamba Juice, and Skrillicon Valley lies a subcultural world that refuses to die. Coming alive in the most obscure strip malls, parking lots, piss alleys, next door to 7-11, it's political, confused, messy, fun. A refusal to the world sold to us but sometimes slipping into that world as well -- what you can't buy, steal or borrow. Here's a selection of documentation of that weird world -- Hollyweird -- tv, videos and films from the 50's through 00's. These films reinvigorate the old saying, "West Coast is the Best Coast, East Coast is the Beast Coast!"
