DAVE MULLER What I did on my summer vacation

Through July 30, 2004

Murray Guy is pleased to present "What I did on my summer vacation", an installation of works by Dave Muller. Made in the summer of 2003 for the Biennale de Lyon and originally exhibited in the three separate locations of the Biennale, the works are shown here together for the first time. Lions abound, flags are unfurled, Free Boat Rides are proclaimed and The View Out of My Window extends through the ceiling into the architect's studio on the floor above.

Gallery hours through July 2 are Tuesday – Saturday 10am – 6pm. For the month of July the gallery will be open Tuesday-Friday 10am – 6pm and in August by appointment only. For further information call 212-463 7372.

A new site-specific drawing installation by Dave Muller opens June 30 at the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art as the first (with Evan Holloway) of the reintroduced series New Work.
