

U.S.A.

19. In the coal fields of Mount Pleasant, Pennsylvania, January 1937
20. The unemployed workers of the coal mines at Scottsrun, West Virginia, January 1937
21. Probably Mount Pleasant, Pennsylvania, 1937
22. Somewhere on the road South, 1937
23. Textile worker in Lumberton, North Carolina, November 1937
24. Thread bobbins in Lumberton, North Carolina, November 1937
 "In the workrooms there was such a humid heat that sometimes the workers, in an act of desperation, would throw the bobbin through the window to make a little air, they would say it had lost its way. The director would pay a dollar to whoever would denounce the guilty."
25. Fire Escape, Charleston, South Carolina, November 1937
26. Probably Savanna, Georgia, 1937
27. "River Front Coffee Shop", Savannah, Georgia, 1937
28. In a family of cotton-pickers, Georgia, 1937
 "They are happier than us" remarked a lawyer from Columbia.
29. A prison near Columbus, Georgia, 1937
 (A.S. was authorized to photograph the laundry, but not the prisoners themselves.)
30. Between Montgomery, Alabama and Columbus, Georgia, 1937
31. Montgomery, Alabama, November 1937
32. Montgomery, Alabama, November 1937
33. A warehouse in Montgomery, Alabama, November 1937
34. Tuskegee, Alabama, November 1937
35. "Southern Hotel", in Montgomery, Alabama, November 1937
36. Knoxville, Tennessee, November 1937
 "Under a huge bridge, in the shadow, boys play hooky."
37. Knoxville, Tennessee, November 1937
38. Knoxville, Tennessee, November 1937
39. A vitrine in Knoxville, Tennessee, November, 1937
40. Knoxville, Tennessee, November 1937
41. Knoxville, Tennessee, November 1937
42. A vitrine in Knoxville, Tennessee, November, 1937
43. Westfront Street in Knoxville, Tennessee, November 1937
 "The mother asked me: How much will you give me to photograph my child?"
44. Knoxville, Tennessee, 1937
45. Little girls in Cincinnati, Ohio, February 1938
46. On the river in Cincinnati, Ohio, February 1938
47. Cincinnati, Ohio, February 1938
48. Worker in Cincinnati, Ohio, February 1938
49. In front of an employment agency in Cincinnati, Ohio, February 1938

ANNEMARIE SCHWARZENBACH
 THE DARK YEARS: 1937-1938

CHECKLIST (with annotations of Annemarie Schwarzenbach)
 STARTING AT LEFT, CLOCKWISE:

1. Portrait of Annemarie Schwarzenbach by Marianne Breslauer, 1932
2. Series of personal photographs: Schwarzenbach with Claude Clarac, 1935; Schwarzenbach shooting a photograph; Schwarzenbach with her mother, 1932; In Prague with the Swiss journalist Adolf Meyer, 1938
3. Page of an article: Drama im amerikanischen Plantagengürtel, (Drama in the American Plantation Region) from "Zürcher Illustriert, June 10, 1938

EUROPE

4. The unemployed at the port of Gdynia, the new port of Poland, cousin to Danzig, May 1937
 "The dockers of Gdynia are all newcomers, a crowd of people, most of whom have never seen the sea."
5. The Port of Gdynia, May 1937
 "This new Polish port town is often called the city without age. It is already ten years old; it's a village with a hundred or so inhabitants.
6. Hitler Youth Sailors in Danzig, May 1937
7. Danzig, May 1937
8. Young girls of the Hitler Youth (BDM) waiting for Goebbels in Danzig, May 1937
9. A window in Danzig with an Aryan insignia, May 1937
 "Officially, the Jews are not yet excluded. But the world knows that this insignia with the German eagle means to say that the proprietor is German. The boycott of Jews is, in effect, so massive that this little tailor living in a village of fishers in Danzig is obliged to prove the purity of her race by hanging this insignia in her window."
10. A newsstand in Danzig, May 1937
 "Even though Danzig is a free state, we find nearly all Nazi publications."
11. Vienna, March 1938
 "The German S.A. (Brown Shirts) survey the Hitler Youth – look at their faces!"
12. The German troops in Vienna, March 1938
 "The Germans seem at home in Vienna"
13. Vienna, March 1938
14. "The National Socialists know how to seduce the masses: From the 20th of March, they have distributed indemnities to the unemployed in Salzburg.", March 1938
15. "And the people jostle each other! We are doing something for the people!" Salzburg, March 1938
16. Hitler Youth, Salzburg, 1938
17. "Even the young learn the Prussian discipline.", Vienna, March 1938
18. "Young and old – almost everyone is rallying for one of the new Nazi organizations." Vienna, 1938