The shroud the slip the surface the stain

06.27.26 - 08.16.26

Kate Hefferan - Brit Krohmer

LVL3 is excited to announce the two-person exhibition, The shroud the slip the surface the stain, featuring the work of Kate Hefferan (Chicago, IL), and Brit Krohmer (Milwaukee, WI), opening on Saturday, June 27th 2026. The exhibition will remain on view until August 16th, 2026.

The shroud the slip the surface the stain is a meditation on the gulf between seeing and knowing, on the space through which we reach in search of the image. Through the works of Krohmer and Hefferan, we invite you to linger and reflect on the moment between perception and comprehension.

Krohmer's ceramic sculptures mimic the geometry of structure and utility while harboring a stubborn resistance to instrumentalization and categorization. In her work, failure and repair exist uneasily in a negotiation between oblivion and purpose. Hefferan's paintings remind us that to remember is also to risk forgetting: by pausing time in material, she stretches and shrinks the distance between the event of the painting and the event of the memory.

The opening reception is on Saturday, June 27th, 2026 from 6-9pm.
