We wanna be artists all the time. We wanna speak about art all the time. All our friends are artists. Our families are artists. We wanna go to every opening in town. We wanna speak with everybody in the art world. We wanna spend twenty-four hours a day in the studio making art. We wanna make art all the time. We wanna do the best art. We wanna be artists all the time. We wanna go to every bookstore. We wanna go to as many bars as possible and talk about art. There is another opening in town/free beer. We take all of it and we spend the rest of the night talking about art. Because we wanna make art all the time. We take pictures of everything we see. We write poems. We are poets. We think about art all the time. Cooking is making art. We have rock bands. We have punk rock bands. We have punk bands. We are listening jazz. We like electronics. We build our own theatres in every house after party. We love models. We wanna spend time with top models all the time. We are dancers. We wanna be dancing all the time. Modeling is also art. We are not good at modeling. We wanna be artists all the time. We don't have a car. But we love cars. We wanna drive cars all the time. We wanna travel all the time.
