27 May through 27 June 1998

Team Gallery will present its second summer group exhibition, running from 27 May through 27 June 1998.

Long a New York art world tradition, the summer show is a casual affair, often cobbled together from material gathering dust in the gallery's inventory. This is partly what we're up to here, but we've added a twist or two wherever possible. Work by a total of twenty-one artists — a few, such as Tam Ochiai and Steven Parrino, part of the gallery's roster — will be hung in pairs around the perimeter of the space. Some of the artists are represented by a single work, others by a few. In this way, each work is being shown alongside a fresh partner, providing accidental new contexts for reading. The invited artists range from elder statesman John Wesley to 22-year-old painter Josh Smith who is making his New York gallery debut.

The gallery is located at 527 West 26th Street, between Tenth and Eleventh Avenues, on the ground floor.

Gallery hours are Friday through Sunday, 11am to 7pm. For further information and/or photographs please call 212 279 9219.
