

The Chest Hair Show

Ralph Bürgin - Louisa Gagliardi - Annie Leibovitz - David Lieske - Romeo Gómez López
 Josip Novosel - Juan Antonio Olivares - Carlos Rodriguez - Jason Rohr

- Chest hair is a secondary sexual attribute that occurs in humans in stable patterns.
- Its public exhibition or removal has always been rooted in displays of power and desire.
- It is a decorative aesthetic element which carries content concurrently.

1. Annie Leibovitz
Milk, What a Surprise!, 1995
Magazine advertisement
2. Juan Antonio Olivares
Hairy Chest Man, 2024
Acrylic paint and graphite powder on aluminum honeycomb panel
3. David Lieske
Erotic Art (the individual problem) #62, 2008
Black & white print on baryta-paper, framed
4. Josip Novosel
Josefs Solarplexus mit ausgestellten Brustwarzen, 2023
Oil on canvas
5. Romeo Gómez López
Octobussy (Harry), 2024
Silicone, synthetic hair, metal, pearls

6. Ralph Bürgin
The Island (stormy Sea), 2024
Oil on canvas

7. Ralph Bürgin
Study for a Man attacked by a Bird, 2024
Oil on canvas

8. Ralph Bürgin
The Island (calm Sea), 2024
Oil on canvas

9. Jason Rohr
Plymouth Rock Forever, 2024
Oil on wood

10. Carlos Rodriguez
The Belly Builders Club 5, 2021
Graphite on paper

11. Postcard for Kyra's Recent Drawings at
Womanart Gallery, 1977

Postcard for Marion Pinto's *Paintings: Man as a
Sex Object* at J. Frederic Lohman Gallery, 1975

12. Louisa Gagliardi
Peach Fuzz, 2024
Ink and gel medium on PVS

13. Romeo Gómez López
Queerbait, 2024
Ballpoint pen on paper