07 July through 04 August 2000

Team will present a group exhibition of new work by Shannon Lucy, Banks Violette, and the collaborative of Eric Heist & Genesis P-Orridge from 07 July through 04 August 2000. This is the gallery's fourth summer group exhibition.

An innocent title, for a somewhat sinister summer show. Beneath pastel surfaces, the subject matters here — violence, sadism, righteous anger, political disaffection — are all couched in elegant formal casings. Each of these artists is showing at the gallery for the first time. Violette is scheduled for a solo show this Fall; Heist & P-Orridge next Spring.

In addition, Team will be turning over its back gallery space to Belgian artist Hans Op de Beeck who will be represented by a single, large-scale video projection. This is another entry in the gallery's Project Room series.

The gallery is located at 527 West 26th Street, between Tenth and Eleventh Avenues, on the ground floor.

Gallery hours for this exhibition are Monday through Friday, 10am to 6pm. For further information and/or photographs please call 212 279 9219.
