Two Things Can Be True

opening receptions:

Wednesday September 9, 6—8pm (D. D. D. D.)

Sunday September 13, 5—8pm (Interrobang)

Two Things Can Be True is a two-venue exhibition, presented with D. D. D. D. The exhibition finds its central motif in the Hugh L. Carey Tunnel Ventilation Building in the East River, which, geographically speaking, lies precisely between the two galleries.

A text by curator Mélanie Scheiner accompanies the exhibition. Two Things Can Be True is made possible with the generous support of the Austrian Cultural Forum New York, BMWKMS Österreich, and Kulturland Niederösterreich. With thanks to Galerie Crone, Berlin/Wien.

Stefan Reiterer was born in Waidhofen an der Thaya, Austria, in 1988 and studied painting at the Academy of Fine Arts in Vienna and the Faculdade de Belas Artes da Universidade do Porto. His works have been shown in numerous international exhibitions, including the Museum Gegenstandsfreier Kunst Germany, Belvedere21 Vienna, Secession Vienna, Kunstforum Vienna, Austrian Cultural Forum London, CCA Andratx Mallorca, Galerie CRONE Berlin and Vienna, Future Gallery Berlin, Simulacra Gallery Beijing, Galeria Fran Reus Mallorca, Projeto Fidalga São Paulo, Bikini Wax Mexico City, Black Ball Projects New York, Grande Vista Los Angeles, and SPZ Gallery Prague. They are held in various private and public collections, such as the Artothek des Bundes Österreich, the Collection of the City of Vienna, the des Museums gegenstandsfreier Kunst, the Belvedere Vienna, the Collection of Lower Austria, and the CCA Andratx. Since 2013, he has co-directed the Kunstverein new jörg in Vienna with Axel Koschier. He is represented by Galerie CRONE Berlin/Vienna.
