

For Immediate Release:

Michael Lavine

Some People

24 April through 23 May 1998

Team Gallery will present a solo exhibition of new work by Michael Lavine from 24 April through 23 May 1998. The gallery is located at 527 West 26th Street, between Tenth and Eleventh Avenues, on the ground floor.

Michael Lavine's Selections from the Artist Project opened Team back in the Fall of 1996. He's returned now for his second exhibition with the gallery and has more than just tweaked a formula. Although there are still artists among his subjects, most of them are represented here in images that have been collaged in post-production, creating dynamic compositions that overlay, split, and pattern the results of Lavine's original photoshoots. Additionally, some of these works have been produced as wallpaper, repeating themselves across some gallery walls.

Appearing alongside his portraits of contemporary fine artists are a multitude of creatives from other fields, be it filmmaking, videography, fiction, or popular music. The world on view here is diverse: one might find Biggie Smalls next to Nicole Eisenmann, or Jonathan Horowitz rubbing shoulders with Kurt Cobain.

Lavine's exhibitions have been the subject of articles in The New York Times, Art in America, and others. His photographs have appeared in a dizzying array of print media. His book of rock photography, Noise from the Underground, was published by Simon & Schuster in 1996.

Gallery hours are Tuesday through Saturday, 11am to 6pm. For further information and/or photographs please call 212 279 9219.
