"She's not my special lady, she's my fucking lady friend. I'm just helping her conceive, man!"

-The Dude

Rue Américaine 13 is proud to present Sofia:Ultralight, a new work from Ben Morgan-Cleveland.

A solitary puppet named Sofia, constructed out of carbon fibre bands, hangs from a harness attached to wires, cables and pulleys. Her performance is imminent. Sailing through the space, with paintbrushes waving. She will be lowered down, a dark moss robe carefully placed over her. The performance will be repeated, Sofia will again rise and glide.

"Look, Jeffrey. I don't want a partner."

-Maude Lebowski
