PINK

Performance

by

Bob Kil

Guts is very pleased to invite you to Pink a new performance by Bob Kil.

“Krill are pink because they eat algae.
Wild salmon are pink because they eat krill.
Farmed salmon are pink because a farmer chose a number.”

Friday, September 25, 2026

Doors open at 19:00
Start at 19:30 sharp
Please RSVP in advance so we can plan accordingly.
