reduce your pay below the minimum wage rates shown above:

- Tips - Your employer may use a limited amount of your tips to reduce your wages. This is called a tip credit. Your employer may take a tip credit only if your tips plus wages add up to at least the minimum wage. They must still pay you at least the tipped wage rates shown above.
- Meals and lodging - Your employer may claim a limited amount of your wages for meals and lodging that they provide to you, as long as they do not charge you anything else. The rates and requirements are set forth in wage orders and summaries, which are available online.

Extra Pay you may be owed in addition to the minimum wage rates shown above:

- Overtime- You must be paid 1½ times your regular rate of pay (no less than amounts shown above) for weekly hours over 40 (or more than 75 times the minimum wage rate.

- Call-in pay - If you go to work as scheduled and your employer sends you home early, you may be entitled to extra hours of pay at the minimum wage rate for that day. • Spread of hours - If your workday lasts longer than ten hours, you may be entitled to extra daily pay. The daily rate is equal to one hour of pay at the minimum wage rate. • Uniform maintenance - If you clean your own uniform, you may be entitled to additional weekly pay. The weekly rates are available online. LS 207 (12/16) Minimum Wage Poster, Post in Plain View
