Attention: Jaunty Chunks issue 1 !!Content needed!!

!!All submissions must REEK!!

WITH KNIFE?
Jaunty is your new chopping board.
CARRY?
Jaunty could be your new target practice.

New magazine for the marinated and all who adore them.

*All ideas and finished work must be formatted or transferred for such doing. Files - high quality scan or send original work AT OWN RISK. Please use easily digestible fonts such as Helvetica, Arial, etc. No cursive/ ice-cream-sundae/ overly cushioned or friendly lettering - stay away from Comic Sans.
Partly B&W printing will be employed - offset on newspaper teamed with colour pages in middle, front and back to amplify shelf appeal. Think corporate tween rags like Tiger beat, BubblePop, Shampoo Crew …or others, like the painfully underground Punk Planet.
Full colour will be immediate sale point, enticing readers who unknowingly become engulfed in POTENT and DENSE text sprayed as if POISON throughout said magazine. Foul, depraved, all will be considered but SELF SUBMISSION is not essentially a contract - nor is a reply.

New issue (so far), 2026
Battered boards, chocolate wrappers, used tissues, paper, house paint, plastic, oil paint, butter knife, permanent marker, PVA glue, liquid nails, gaffer tape, MDF board, salt, general rubbish.
