Artwork for Bedrooms tells the story of eight artists living in San Francisco 2000–08 , a period that until now has been framed by the Mission School , artists known for sprawling assemblages that took inspiration from graffiti culture . Artwork for Bedrooms draws a parallel narrative from the same moment of young artists who were similarly invested in “poor” materials , but who put them to work in more abstract , fragile , or conceptual ways .

An exhibition catalogue , featuring extensive interviews with the artists and other members of the art community in San Francisco between 2000 and 2008 , is available here .

Artwork for Bedrooms is curated by CCA 's Graduate Program in Curatorial Practice Class of 2018 Maddie Klett , Zhaoyu Lin , MK Meador , Cristiane Ulson Quercia , Rosa Tyhurst , and Qinyue Xu .
