Press use is considered to be moderate use of images to report a current event or to illustrate a review or criticism of the work, as defined by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 Chapter 48 Section 30 Subsections (1) - (3). Reproductions which comply with the above do not need to be licensed.

Reproductions for all non-press uses or for press uses where the above criteria do not apply (e.g. covers and feature articles, advertorials) must be licensed before publication. Further information can be obtained the Artists Rights Society: <https://www.arsny.com>

Due to UK copyright law only applying to UK publications, any articles or press uses which are published outside of the UK and include reproductions of these images will need to have sought authorisation with the relevant copyright society of that country.

Please also ensure that all works that are provided are shown in full, with no overprinting or manipulation.
