VIBRATION GROUP is an experimental sci-fi opera and multimedia installation by Anna Luisa Petrisko.

Performance dates: November 20-24, 2019.

Los Angeles Contemporary Exhibitions (LACE)
6522 Hollywood Blvd.
Los Angeles, CA 90028

In the future, a group of migrants are living in a spaceship commune where they are planning, processing, and generating for a terra-cultural resurgence. They reject the idea of being settlers on another's planet, leaving them stuck in suspension as they travel through fractured worlds, missing their home on a fraught Earth. VIBRATION GROUP speculates on modes of cultural survival and preservation in a future dystopia.

Audiences can take a sensory bath in Earth-like landscapes in the "Virtual Reality Spa," designed by Tonia B and Ana Carolina Estarita Guerrero, peruse the VIBRATION GROUP archival methods and research via touchscreen computers, and partake in ceremonial toasts led by artist Sarah Gail. At the culmination, guests gather for "Group Therapy," the opera performance which features vocal solos by each member including Soprano/sound artist Micaela Tobin (White Boy Scream).

In celebration, Anna Luisa will be releasing a 7" vinyl split with artist Adee Roberson on Practical Records. ENERGY, the title track from VIBRATION GROUP, is a club-ready track featuring Barry Brannum and Sarah Gail in a performance that channels House legend Jamie Principle. We will also be releasing The Body Bends In Space: VIBRATION GROUP Exercises for the Body and Mind, a limited edition risograph booklet designed by Kristian Henson (Hardworking Goodlooking), as well as Anna Luisa's new VIBRATION GROUP clothing line designed in collaboration with Print All Over Me (PAOM).

*A space commune of chosen fam seeks refuge
Using tools of ancestor, energy, and our shimmering seeing eye.
Suspended in an abyss of long time displacing,
Spiraling in wait, migrating
We pooled vibration.
Exercises of mourning, care, joy
For co-designing survival environs
Of the spheres: psycho-spiritual-body*
