

cura.

Hālau Hula O Na Mele ‘Āina O Hawai’i with Ei Arakawa
KAHIKO ROME (An Homage to Frank B.)
presented by CURA.

MAXXI – Museum of the Arts of the XXI century
September 26, 2014
4pm

The performance artist Ei Arakawa joins the New York based Hawaiian dance team Hālau Hula O Na Mele ‘Āina O Hawai’i (led by the native Hawaiian Luana Haraguchi). They present traditional hula (Kahiko) at the MAXXI museum courtyard, telling stories of the Hawaiian goddess of volcanoes, Pele.

The performance was premiered at the Whitney Biennial 2014 with Ei Arakawa’s hat sculpture, Hawaiian Presence.

Special Thanks to Alberto Salvadori and Silke Otto-Knapp. This performance is made possible with the support of Museo Marino Marini, Florence.

Duration: 30’
Free entrance

Photo: Lindsay Keys

cura.magazine and books – moving produzioni soc coop.
via ricciotti 4 – 00195 roma – VAT 10391011003
www.curamagazine.com – info@curamagazine.com