MISAKO & ROSEN is pleased to announce "Face" - our second presentation of a solo exhibition with New York based artist Josh Brand. A selection of Brand's recent exhibitions includes "Never Enough : Recent Acquisitions of Contemporary Art", Dallas Museum of Art (2014), "Museum of Modern Art and Western Antiquities Department of Light Recordings Section IV : Lens Drawings", Marian Goodman Gallery, Paris (2013) and "Printed" Mai 36, Zurich (2012). In Japan, Brand's work was included in the 2013 exhibition "Why Not Live for Art II" at Tokyo Opera City Art Gallery.

Contrary to much contemporary work in photography, Josh Brand's practice allows for a consideration of a personal phenomenal and emotional space. The present exhibition consists of both painted and straight photographs. The two categories of picture share a rootedness in lived experience as well as reflection and representation.
