

Sending a Signal out in the Ether: Live on Radio Athènes

Merging the intimate story-telling aspect of the voice on the radio with the performative quality of bodies sharing this same experience in space “Sending a Signal out in the Ether: Live on Radio Athènes” sets out on a meandering journey between art, music, dreams, desires, politics and life.

View images on radioathenes.tv

Project #2 Thomas Boutoux with Teddy Coste
MAYBE I'M NOT THE PERSON THAT I NEVER WANTED TO BE

Saturday 15 and Sunday 16 October 2016 8 pm

A two-episode radio drama written and performed by Thomas Boutoux and Teddy Coste. It follows a plot and a group of characters from Somewhere, France, on a random year in the early 1990s, to Athens, on the night that preceded this radio show.

Listen to Part I
Listen to Part II

Thomas Boutoux is a writer, curator and publisher from Paris. From 2007 to 2015, he was one of the persons behind castillo/corrales, and he's now one of the members of the new collective entity Paraguay, Paris.

Teddy Coste is an artist who lives in Lisbon. In his sculptural and installation work, Coste stresses the adaptability of the art object as a carrier of alternative stories and anecdotes.

Curated by Elena Tzotzi and organised in collaboration with Signal, Malmö www.signal-signal.org

Elena Tzotzi is the Co-director of Signal - Center for Contemporary Art in Malmö, Sweden, a collaborative exhibition venue, committed to producing, presenting, and contextualizing art. Previously, Tzotzi worked at the Rooseum Center for Contemporary Art and Lunds Konsthall. She has curated numerous exhibitions as a freelance curator and contributes regularly to publications and magazines.