

All: Collected Voices is an audio archive produced by Goethe Institut Athen as part of 'apropos documenta' together with Radio Athènes.

View images on radioathenes.tv

Curated by Helena Papadopoulos and Thomas Boutoux, the programme aims to cultivate, preserve and transmit the polyphony of responses to the exhibitions and events in Athens during the spring and summer of 2017 via a series of direct commissions, incidental invitations and accidental encounters.

All: Collected Voices channels readings, conversations, interviews and soundworks arranged and recorded at Radio Athènes, assembling itself over time into an oral/aural archive at www.all-collected-voices.org, a dedicated website designed by dexter sinister.

It will go live ON AIR from 8 April 2017, recording at Radio Athènes, 15 Petraki street, Athens, and thereafter broadcasts from the æther to anyone anytime anyplace.

www.all-collected-voices.org
www.goethe.de/aproposdocumenta