

Silke Otto-Knapp

What are the directions on a map?

13 February – 11 April 2020

Opening Thursday, 13 February, 7-9pm

For her fourth exhibition with Galerie Buchholz Silke Otto-Knapp (* 1970, lives and works in Los Angeles) shows new paintings and collages. In her works for this exhibition, Otto-Knapp revisits the iconic choreography of Bronislawa Nijinskas for Igor Stravinsky's ballet "Les Noces", which premiered in 1923, and the production "animal/vegetable/mineral" by the Michael Clark Company, 2012-13.

"In the Waiting Room", a solo exhibition by Silke Otto-Knapp, will be on view at The Renaissance Society, Chicago, through 29 March. In addition, works by Silke Otto-Knapp are currently on view in the new collection presentations at the Museum of Modern Art, New York and the Tate Modern, London. Silke Otto-Knapp will participate in a Michael Clark exhibition at the Barbican Art Gallery in London this June. Silke Otto-Knapp is Professor of Painting at UCLA, Los Angeles.