MANDLA REUTER

Souvenir

1. May 2009 – 13. June 2009

The exhibition Souvenir shows works by Mandla Reuter that, in their interplay, create a tension between imaginary and real space. For example, Reuter adds to the seven eastward-facing window panels of the hexagonal exhibition space an eighth, consisting of mirrors, and transfers the water and power supplies from the outside to the inside of the building. Additionally, he installs a scale replica of the larger than life bronze Traum vom Fliegen by Senta Baldamus in the Schinkel Pavillon.
