GEERTEN VERHEUS

Loyal Jelly

27. November 2010 – 9. January 2011

The Schinkel Pavillon presents the exhibition Loyal Jelly by Geerten Verheus. The title is not only an example of the artist's subtle play on words, but also refers to the waywardness of his materials. For example, Verheus covers the 21 windows of the Schinkel Pavillon with a group of sculptures seeming to be real venetian blinds though their slats are made of black rubber.
