JOHN BOCK

30. April 2011 – 29. May 2011

During the Gallery Weekend, the Schinkel Pavillon serves as stage for John Bock's performances. Even before the artist recites stories, theories, poems, a drama and a manifesto, he demonstrates to visitors the versatility of his jacket, custom tailored for this event, and administers his own preventative medicine. The recited texts as well as relics of the performances form the material of the exhibition in the Schinkel Pavillon.
