

Exhibition views THE TABLE @ Air de Paris, Paris, 1998.

This exhibition took place on and around a table of 15 meters long. We regularly try to present artworks in a context that is close to a private appartement, in which the visitor wouldn't only be in a vertical and frontal relation to the pieces. Some works were changing the structure of the space, including several light pieces. The exhibition ended with a fantastic diner, with a menu by Alain Dutournier (Le Carré des Feuillants, Paris) and great wines offered by the Grand Jury European.
