Hi Yves,

What's up? Carlos sent me the press release about Kyle. Very nice. Loved it.

So for Random I'm thinking something like below. The back wall would be painted a burnt orange color. I'm not sure which collages would go on there but something similar to these. The two side walls would be wallpaper murals of stills from Super-8 movies I made. I'm getting the paper made here to size and you'd just have to stick it on. I don't know if it's possible but I'm picturing the bottom of the space covered with about 2-3 cm of sand-beach sand or from a builder's supply. Here you can buy bags of it for just a few dollars, maybe the same there. Then the words could be drawn in it with a stick, and maybe filled in with bits of seaweed which I would send.

What do you think?

Talk to you soon,

Erik
