

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JUNE CULP

April 4th – May 2nd, 2015

Opens Saturday, April 4th from 7-9pm

Freddy is happy to present a solo exhibition by Baltimore-based artist, June Culp.

There is a compelling psycho-sexual violence embedded in Culp's paintings that is reinforced by the large scale and reductive imagery. The paintings are limited to mostly black-and-white depictions of what the artist describes as everyday preoccupations. These everyday preoccupations include fist-fights and strip clubs.

June Culp (b. 1991) received a BFA in Painting from the Maryland Institute College of Art in 2013. Recent exhibitions include I Love YouHoo (Current Space, Baltimore, MD), Black and Blue (Gallery 919, Wilmington, DE), and Sharper Image (Ethan Cohen Gallery, New York, NY). Culp lives and works in Baltimore, MD.
