11 September - 31 October 2021

"Sleep.

Those little slices of Death.

How I loathe them."

- Edgar Allen Poe

Washington DC: von ammon co is pleased to announce its thirteenth project at 3330 Cady's Alley, an end to sleep, a solo show by Detroit-based artist Tony Hope.

The centerpiece of the show will be a playable six-course miniature golf course with each hole based on a scene from the Nightmare on Elm Street movie franchise. The course will feature a variety of animatronics, water features and hyperrealist sculpture. A new group of works on canvas and altered children's sleeping bags will accompany the course. All works will be blacklight sensitive and displayed in a dark room outfitted with UV-A bulbs. The exhibition will be open until midnight on Sunday, October 31st (Halloween Night).
