

VITRINE: ALISA BAREMBOYM

Saturday, July 11 - Sunday, August 9, 2015

JOAN presents a site-specific installation Untitled (Vitrine) by Alisa Baremboym. Connected by taut webbing straps, the vitrine sits under the skylight with contents that conjure containment, tactility, and transformation of force.

taut webbing
  distills the light
    filtering information
      in thermal suspension
encased in steel
  an uncertain sphere
    accumulates compression
      for the containment of force preserving vitality
absorbing energy
  for manufacturing process
