

Paula' new nose/If you drag a $100 bill through a trailer park, you never know what you'll find.

May 8, Excelsior Hotel in Little Rock, Arkansas.

Bill asked Paula up to his room. Paula went in, over to the window. There's a pretty view up there, it was really high up.

The room was furnished as a business suite, not for an overnight hotel guest. It contained a couch and chairs, but no bed.

Dan hanging out by the water cooler with a gun.

Keeping himself up, Bill, kept on until he dropped his pants. His hands running up her culottes.

She got over to the couch, sat on the end of the couch on the armchair part.

They were long. They were down to the knees. They were long, dressy culottes. He had his hand up, going up to the middle pelvic area.

She turned around, he was back over there, came over, pulled his pants down, sat down and asked her to perform oral sex.

There were distinguishing characteristics in Bill's genital area that were obvious to Paula.

"Would you kiss it for me?"

(Bill doesn't have any recollection of meeting Paula on this particular day.)

Her description of Bill's penis did not align with those of some anonymous sources.
