Abby Lloyd
Goodbye Dolly
December 11th, 2021–February 14th, 2021

Abby Lloyd. Goodbye Dolly, 2021. Fabric, poly-fil, batting, foam, packing peanuts, plaster, vinyl, spray paint. 98 x 148 x 160 in.

Goodbye Dolly is a larger than life version of a child's beloved rag doll. She sits in the corner, filling the room, legs sprawled out, arms extended to embrace you. Though she's lost her dress and her heart is exposed, she still smiles sweetly at every passerby.

Abby Lloyd is an artist and curator who lives and works in New York City. Recent group exhibitions include: Garden of Earthly Delights, curated by Anna Kustera, Spring Break Art Show, NYC, 2021 and Vision 20/20, White Columns, NYC, 2021. Recent solo exhibitions include Abby's Room, Freddy, Harris, NY, 2019 and Why Meow at Catbox Contemporary, NYC, 2019. She recently self-published a cookbook Artists + Recipes that is available at Olympia, NYC. She will be presenting work at Like A Little Disaster, Bari, Italy, TBA and has an upcoming solo exhibition in the spring at Sunny NY, NYC. She is represented by Sunny NY, NYC.
