Mommie dearest is the first solo show in Italy by artist Jasmine Gregory, taking place at Istituto Svizzero in Milan. As part of a young generation of emerging artists, for this show, Jasmine Gregory presents a series of new paintings and a work that lies between sculpture and 'ready-made'. Working primarily with painting, she engages with iconography and western art history from a critical perspective. Within this context, she explores her role as a young painter, playfully and smoothly combining pop cultural references and contemporary theoretical discourses into her practice.

Jasmine Gregory (b.1987) is an artist living and working in Zürich, Switzerland. Jasmine Gregory's work develops various sets of motifs, artistic gestures as well as assemblages to explore the tensions of artistic production, history of painting as well as subjectivity in how it circulates in institutional and commercial contexts. Recent group shows include Werkschau Kanton Zürich 2021 at Haus Konstruktiv (Zürich), Art For Black Lives, Round 4 (Online Exhibition), FOTOROMANZA at Le Commun (Geneva), Sommer des Zögerns at Kunsthalle Zürich (Zürich). Recent solo exhibitions include Home Improvements Park View with Paul Soto (Brussels) and Trouble at Casa Amor, Karma International (Zürich).

The opening will be accompanied with sound by ALIENI (TOMBOYS DON'T CRY), between H19:00 and H20:00. Drinks will be served.

Upcoming events within the exhibition:

March — Artist talk by Jasmine Gregory in conversation with Barbara Casavecchia (writer, independent curator and educator b) and Gioia Dal Molin (Head Curator Istituto Svizzero). More information soon.

April — Mechanical theater piece. A performance for objects by artist Anna Franceschini. More information soon.

Istituto Svizzero acts as an interdisciplinary platform bringing together artistic and scientific research. From Rome, Milan or Palermo, it facilitates connections both between Switzerland and Italy, as well as internationally. Istituto Svizzero offers residencies to emerging artists and researchers who wish to contribute to the future of art, science and innovation. Each year, the Institute presents a public programme aimed at promoting forward-thinking events and projects, experimental practices and excellence in research. Istituto Svizzero seeks to actively participate in the global discourse on arts and society, envisioning new paths and looking beyond the boundaries of disciplines.
