

Jeanne Gaigher

Anatomy Lesson

February 26 – April 16, 2022

Wschód is pleased to present a solo exhibition by Cape Town based artist Jeanne Gaigher entitled 'Anatomy lesson'.

'Gaigher's work is a composite of the body and its terrain, a supple amalgam of tensions between the two. Unreliable architectures and mercurial protagonists ripen on the surface of Gaigher's shredded and stitched canvas. Her compositions rot and bloom to a dream-logic, where painterly gestures dissolve and resolution is substituted with fluidity [...]

Jeanne Gaigher (b.1990) completed a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree at the Stellenbosch University in 2012. In 2017, Gaigher received the Index Artist in Residence Scholarship at Freira – Stipendium in Zurich, Switzerland. She recently held her solo exhibition 'Sing into my Mouth' at Osart Gallery in Milan in 2021. In the last months of 2020 she presented an extensive solo exhibition 'Tango' at Smac Gallery in Stellenbosch, South Africa. In 2018, Gaigher presented her solo exhibition, Century's View, at SMITH in Cape Town, South Africa. Further solo exhibitions include Wieg and Club at SMITH in Cape Town, South Africa in 2016 and 2015 respectively. Recent group exhibitions include 'Phoenix Runway', Whatiftheworld Gallery curated by Reservoir Projects, 2022; 'Gather and A Show of Solidarity', SMAC Gallery, Cape Town, 2020; 'African Textures', Osart Gallery, 2019; 'The Female Line', SMAC Gallery, Cape Town, 2019; 'Close Encounters', SMITH, Cape Town, 2018.