

Francis Ruyter

The artist Francis Ruyter
has taken a photo of a paintbrush
which is holding up a tent.
The brush is suspended
between a white surface
and an orange-colored canvas tent.
The white surface reflects the orange color.

Francis Ruyter's exhibition at Bureaucracy Studies
has the title "(Let us now Praise Famous Men)."
Ruyter places the title in brackets.
Maybe he is hiding something from the viewer.
A new work consists of a painting
on an actual canvas LARP tent.
LARP stands for Live Action Role Play.

The exhibition by Francis Ruyter takes place at Bureaucracy Studies from 25 February to 10 April 2022.
The exhibition is open every Sunday from 4 to 6 pm
and by appointment
at Avenue du Chablais 18, 1020 Renens.

Bureaucracy Studies is supported by the Canton de Vaud, the Ville de Lausanne, the Ville de Renens
and the Fondation Casino Barrière Montreux.

Connect with Bureaucracy Studies via <https://bureaucracystudies.org> and @bureaucracystudies

Contact Matthias Sohr via matthias@bureaucracystudies.org and +41 76 222 4171