Mike Cloud

Small and Unfinished Works

September 3 - October 13, 2017

Reserve Ames is pleased to present Mike Cloud's first solo exhibition in Los Angeles September 3 – October 13, 2017. The exhibition, which consists of a selection of small and unfinished works and a series of works on paper, spanning 2004 to 2016, demonstrates Cloud's interest in relinquishing certain conventions of painting in favor of conceptual and formal investigations that enable his expressive and subjective disposition to channel through the medium.
