

Paul Bancell
performance
4/11/10

Cleopatra's is pleased to present a performance by Detroit based musician Paul Bancell, Sunday April 11th at 9pm. In Bancell's on going solo project the artist performs original scores on guitars and synthesizer, continuously assembling and layering these various components during the live set with the assistance several recording devices. Beginning and ending with extemporized noise, the focus of this performance is a half hour of new material and songs from his latest EP.

<http://www.myspace.com/paulbancell>

New videos and photographs compiled by Bacell while on a recent tour to Paris and Vienna, have been arranged as a visual accompaniment to the set.

Besides his solo performances, Bancell is also a member of the band The Baptist Church, and collaborates with other artists and musicians. These collaborations include an upcoming performance with Jimbo Easter at Dreamland Theater (<http://www.dreamlandtheater.com/>) and providing an original score to Cleopatra's screening of Projection at the Cave Gallery, Detroit this past December.

(This document was automatically generated by Contemporary Art Library.)