

FiFi projects is pleased to present First Untitled Tennis Tournament, an exhibition that brings together works by artists who will participate in a tennis competition during the exhibition.

The works presented in this exhibition tie in unevenly with our programme by offering a group exhibition that includes both emerging artists and more established names. The artists taking part in the project are : Stefan Bruggemann, Bosco Sodi, Gonzalo Lebrija, Chantal Peñalosa, Mario Garcia Torres, Pablo Davila, Paloma Herrera , Andrew Greene, Jimena Montemayor, Damaso Canales, Diego Berruecos, Federica Francesconi, Sofia Garfias, Fernando De Haro. The practices confront each other, giving rise to a dialogue that seems to develop around the pretext of the Tournament as a collective activity and as the only point of dialogue between the artists' practices.
