

NICELLE BEAUCHENE GALLERY

Andrea Joyce Heimer

Storied

May 25 - June 25, 2017

Clockwise:

Andrea Joyce Heimer

During Summers The August Sun Baking The Asphalt And Our Skin Was Our Only Proof That We Were, In Fact, Temporary Creatures., 2017

Pencil and acrylic on panel

18 x 18 inches

Andrea Joyce Heimer

When I Was Young My Grandmother Lived Alone In The Mountains And Each September Our Extended Family Would Travel There To Help Her Prepare For A Long Winter, Which I Loved To Do, Except For The Hunting., 2017

Pencil and acrylic on panel

18 x 18 inches

Andrea Joyce Heimer

I Remember My Teenage Friendships And Their Mystery And Seduction And How We Believed By Our Own Magic We Could Do The Impossible Like Join Hands And Raise The Dead, And Those Few Breathless Seconds We Shared Before We Were Proven Wrong., 2017

Pencil and acrylic on panel

24 x 30 inches

Andrea Joyce Heimer

Pre-Prom Séance, 1996., 2017

Pencil and acrylic on panel

18 x 24 inches

NICELLE BEAUCHENE GALLERY

Andrea Joyce Heimer

A Long Time Ago In Great Falls Montana Where I'm From The Mariana UFO Incident Occurred In Which Three Silver Disks Burned Across The Sky Over A Baseball Diamond And Resulted In The Activity And I Still Get The Shakes Thinking About It, The Disks And The Craned Necks And The Dusty August Day., 2017

Pencil and acrylic on panel

18 x 24 inches

Andrea Joyce Heimer

The Johnson Boys Used To Set Off Fireworks In Their Mother's Home, Which Was Too Nice For Them, While We, Who Were Too Nice For The Johnson Boys, Pined Over Them Fiercely From Afar. They Didn't Know We Existed., 2017

Pencil and acrylic on panel

18 x 24 inches