The group exhibition A Tongue Becomes Yours brings artists together who negotiate the potentials and restrictions of language. During socialisation, language is bound to a particular culture and is full of codes. Geographical and social origins are reflected in expressions and accents. The values of the family nucleus and political power structures equally mould the use of language. At the same time, language is something that can be shaped and makes it possible to strive for a new identity as a society or as an individual.

The exhibition conceived in exchange with the artists is a production of CC Ter Dilft, curated by Fabian Flückiger.

The exhibition runs from Sunday 25.09 to Sunday 04.12.
Free visits daily from 2 to 8 pm,
Saturday and Sunday from 10 am to 4 pm.
Closed on Wednesday 05.10,
Tuesday 01.11, Wednesday 02.11
and Friday 11.11.
