Strange Itineraries., Meisterschüler_innen der HBK Braunschweig,
Kunstverein Braunschweig 2022,
Design: Tanja Schuez

Kunstverein Braunschweig is happy to present in 2022 once again an exhibition dedicated to works by this year's Braunschweig University of Art (HBK) Meisterschüler_innen. This is the fourth time that the Kunstverein has made its entire premises available to showcase the quality and diversity of artistic practices in Braunschweig. The 16 international artists featured in the exhibition work across a wide variety of media, ranging from painting and sculpture to film and performance.

The title Strange Itineraries. describes the serendipitous, but often initially unexpected, even unplannable paths and processes that lead to the development of one's own artistic signature. At the same time, the Meisterschüler_innen exhibition represents a threshold for the young artists. It stands for a return toward open roads, which have to be followed at the beginning of promising, but changeful careers. Simultaneously, the exhibition itself forms a friendly labyrinth of directions that invites visitors to linger, to wander, to enjoy the works and to engage in dialogue.

Carlotta Drinkewitz (*1995, Braunschweig) studied conceptual painting at the Braunschweig University of Art (HBK) with Prof. Frances Scholz. She examines systems of representation in art history and combines them into a complex mesh of references between content and technique. Through the practice of repetition and deconstruction, she undermines the assumption of an absolute origin of images and language and questions the concept of authorship and appropriation.

Gudrun-Sophie Frommhage (*1967) completed her studies in art science/aesthetic education and her 2nd state examination in art and performing arts. She studied fine arts at the Braunschweig University of Art (HBK) under Prof. Norbert Bisky (painting) and Prof. Thomas Virnich (sculpture), with the latter she completed her master class. In her large-format expressive paintings, prints and ceramic sculptures, she focuses on the human body with all its fractures and imperfections.

The works oscillate between melancholy and absurdity. The everyday plays an essential role. The look behind facades of human existence. It is about revealing emotions, playing with the given, making the invisible visible.

CHARLOTTE MARIA KÄTZL & CONRAD VEIT

Charlotte Maria Kätzl (*1993, Rosenheim) and Conrad Veit (*1987, Duisburg) are an artist duo who completed their Meisterschüler_innen studies in Fine Art in the class of Prof. Thomas Rentmeister at Braunschweig University of Art (HBK) in 2022. Their works form a cosmos in which the focus is on playing with the figurative and the different. A game that creates diversity and confusion, questioning the boundaries of the heteronormative and the socially constructed. The duo works with multimedia and combines sculptural elements and costumes into performative stagings that result in film or photographic works or are further developed in room bound installations. Kätzl and Veit's productions have been shown at international film festivals, e.g. Berlinale, British Film Institute Flares LGBTQIA, Goethe Institute Seattle and in numerous exhibitions, e.g. Deichtorhallen Hamburg, Landesmuseum Koblenz, Mönchehaus Goslar.

TAKASHI KUNIMOTO

Takashi Kunimoto (*1980, Tokyo, Japan) is a filmmaker living in Germany whose works have been shown at film festivals in Germany and Japan (Internationale Kurzfilmtage Oberhausen, European Media Art Festival and Image Forum Festival etc.). He works with the media of digital video and analog film. In his work, Kunimoto stages series of personal portraits about other people who are less visible and almost forgotten presence in our society. He believes that his poetic expression in his small world has power to make the audience question the power structure around us.
