Annette Wehrhahn, Woman, 2022, Watercolor and oil paint on canvas, 59 x 44 inches

Halsey McKay is pleased to present, Women, Annette Wehrhahn's first solo exhibition with the gallery. Wehrhahn uses her imagination to inventory human fragments that speak to her physical experience; eyes, breasts, feet, hands, a uterus and a foot ensconced in high heels. The unexpected arrangement of these familiar parts can be comical and surreal but also speak to the awkwardness of these fleshy forms we find ourselves in.

Her work has been exhibited internationally in Copenhagen, Denmark and Milan, Italy, and recently in Luxembourg at Ceysson & Bénétière Gallery. She has been in numerous exhibitions across the United States, recently at CANADA, Safe Gallery, Derek Eller Gallery and Horton Gallery.

In 2010 she co-founded artist run space Soloway Gallery and has continued to curate exhibitions and act as a gallery director ever since. She received a BFA in Printmaking from the Rhode Island School of Design and an MFA in Painting from Bard College. Annette Wehrhahn is based in Brooklyn NY.
