Gern en Regalia
Opening 11/11/22

Last night I saw the same dream I saw the day we met たまたま？ Was it luck, chance or fate?

What was the color of the eyes on my favorite doll
The taste of my first lipgloss

I can't pick and choose my memories
But I can pick and choose my curtains.

Every bookmark is a wish
This is the new me

Priced, priceless

Compressed into the digital
My past self, my imagined self, the you and the I

We are all together in the same room

Timeless, timestamped

11:11

Maybe it's coincidence, maybe it's destiny

dream dream
desire despair

It's never too late to be who you might have been.

Today I threw away a shirt I've been wanting to throw away

Objects that once defined me
Where are they now?

Displaced from the private to a place of dreams, delusion

Tangible, intangible

I want every object to be meaningful, to be felt,
to be mine
to be shared

Sara Yukiko Mon (b. 1996, San Francisco, California) is a multidisciplinary artist and designer living and working in New York, New York. She graduated from UCLA with a BA in Design | Media Arts in 2018. Her work highlights the beauty and humor in casual, mundane happenings while playing with themes of nostalgia and identity. Recent solo and duo exhibitions include Pirouette (2022) and Two Birds, One Stone at Gern en Regalia (2020). She has shown in recent group exhibitions at Entrance Gallery and A.D. NYC.
