Exhibition details: Motoko Ishibashi
24.03.2023 — 26.05.2023

Description: robert's is delighted to present an exhibition of works by Motoko Ishibashi. Ishibashi's painting is exhibited alongside ceramic works made as part of the collaborative duo Willowfuck with Robin von Einsiedel. The exhibition is accompanied by a text written by Suki Hollywood.

Artists bio: Motoko Ishibashi (born in Nagasaki, Japan) received her MA in Painting at the Royal College of Art, London in 2015, her BFA in Painting at Slade School of Fine Art, London in 2013, and a BA in Aesthetics and Science of Arts: Philosophy at Keio University, Tokyo in 2010. Focused predominantly on painting, Ishibashi's practice amalgamates Western and Japanese visual languages through painting, performance, installation, video, photography and printmaking. Engaging with mass consumer culture as well as digital cultures, her work considers relations of power, gender, the body and selfhood within technologically-mediated society. Ishibashi's work has appeared in the following recent exhibitions, some of which she was also involved in curating: Wicked City at Sebastian Gladstone, Los Angeles (2023), 'symposium: What looks good today may not look good tomorrow: Legacy of Michel Majerus' at MUDAM, Luxembourg (2022), COPE at no gallery, New York (2022), Beginning of the end at Schwabinggrad, Munich (2021), Assholes at V.O curations, London (2021), Agitations: stirred portraits at Courtyard Hiroo, Tokyo (2020), The Sound of Rhubarb at Lady Helen, London (2019), Rachel Is at Pact, Paris (2019), Séraphîta at Polansky Gallery, Prague (2018), and 2:00 at Fig. Tokyo (2018).

Writers bio: Born in Belfast on Valentine's Day, Suki Hollywood is a writer and poet. She has been published in Gutter, Clav Mag, The Selkie and Spam. Her poetry pamphlets Heart Eyes and This Suit are available now at www.sukihollywood.com, along with This Suit's companion film (included in the SQ!FF 2021 selection). Her debut novel Jesus Freaks is coming in 2023.
