

Selecting works and performances by more than 35 international artists for Scorpio's Garden, Berlin-based Danish artist Kirstine Roepstorff gives a subjective snapshot of the Berlin art scene. With an unusual exhibition architecture, she creates new axes of vision and a special dynamics in the space. A spiral ramp and transparent curtains create spatial situations in which Roepstorff shows over 60 works, including sculptures and installations, but also drawings, collages, and film. The exhibition also includes a comprehensive performance and lecture series, beginning on the opening night and continuing on various Mondays during the exhibition.

(This document was automatically generated by Contemporary Art Library.)