I've never really written so i guess, there is no better time than now

...

when i was young, i never thought i had a voice

PAPA JOHN'S PROJECTS

is a way to entertain myself and at the same time create some form of dialogue

through a global network of artist who use the internet/social media/facebook the world is the way it is nothing has ever changed that we are human I had sat on an idea for two years

when I started a gallery

on facebook

I thought

the absurdity alone

counted for something in the end isn't it all bullshit not life just all the conditions created by human show can you escape you have to KNOW WAYS OUT
