

We are very happy to announce the opening of our upcoming exhibition local supply with works by Brishty Alam, Karine Fauchard, Brigitte Kowanz, Flavio Palasciano, Sebastian Scholz, Thomas Supper and Fridolin Welte. 'Local supply' will open on Saturday, 30 September at Kaufhaus Thomas Supper, in Rohr, Burgenland. The 7 artists will present their work in the empty shelves, displays and windows of the former family-run grocery store.

A friendly wave from behind the counter, a casual chat about the weather, the hum of the ice-cream freezer, the light, the smell, the temperature and a quick glance over the shoulder when someone walks through the door - 'local supply' reflects aspects of everyday life in a small village shop.

To make it as easy as possible for you to get to the exhibition, we have organised a bus that will leave from Karlsplatz at 12:00 and take you to the venue free of charge. The same bus will return to Vienna at 18:30. Let us know if you want to join, RSVP here or at laurenz.space@gmail.com.
