Start a space.

Lose your space. Lose your studio. Lose your job.

Lose your car. Lose your apartment.

One year the Life. One year positive real.

Many are sick. Cannot cope.

It's enough. Was enough to begin with.

Exhaustion. Hair loss. Pimples

I have a friend who works full-time side jobs.

I have a friend who's plagued by unexplained chronic inflammations.

I have a friend who just wants to breathe.

I have a friend who thinks up a new name every night.

I have a friend who can't afford friendship anymore.

I have a friend I do not like.

I have many friends that I need to have. I also have many friends that I need to lift. Many, many, many friends. Lots of love, too.

Many are sick. Friends and Fences.

I can't go on and couldn't ever.

So it goes on and always went.

Nihilist Memes. Pictures of dogs.

Just sleep. No, just work. And breathe.

Keep going without reason.

Many are sick.

An exhibition on fatigue and exhaustion.

About cooperation and collective.

An exhibition about the night and the year.

A retrospect.

A dark, friendly, rotten Christmas celebration.

There will be soup!
