Dean Baldwin Lew's Not only is everything ours but also everyone else's reminds us of the gallery's capacity to flock. Becoming part Legion Hall, part Church Basement, and an ongoing stage for varied uses, Dean invites artists to lead and share events throughout the show's run, including tastings, workshops, "gambling," and meals.

Events:

Winemaking with Joe Pingue (actor), a long ongoing process with timing dependant dates for pressing, bottling etc.

Aligned with the harvests in nearby Niagara, the first activity will be the vinification of fresh grapes on site. Look for an open invitation to the pressing (and simultaneous consumption) on whatever day the fermentation is complete. The wine will decide when its ready.
