

Fine Arts, Sydney

Hany Armanious

February — March, 2024

Fine Arts, Sydney is presenting an exhibition of new work by Hany Armanious.

This exhibition presents a body of work developed over the course of a year, comprising a number of unique sculptures made entirely in cast resin and pigment.

Hany Armanious lives and works in Sydney. Over thirty years his work has been presented in solo and curated exhibitions throughout Australasia, in Europe and North America. His work represented Australia at the 54th Venice Biennale.

This year Hany Armanious' work will be the subject of a solo exhibition at the Henry Moore Institute, Leeds, United Kingdom.

This is Hany Armanious' third solo exhibition with Fine Arts, Sydney.

Please contact the gallery directly for further information.
